

Stage 1 Food and Hospitality

INVESTIGATION

Weighting 25%

TASK:

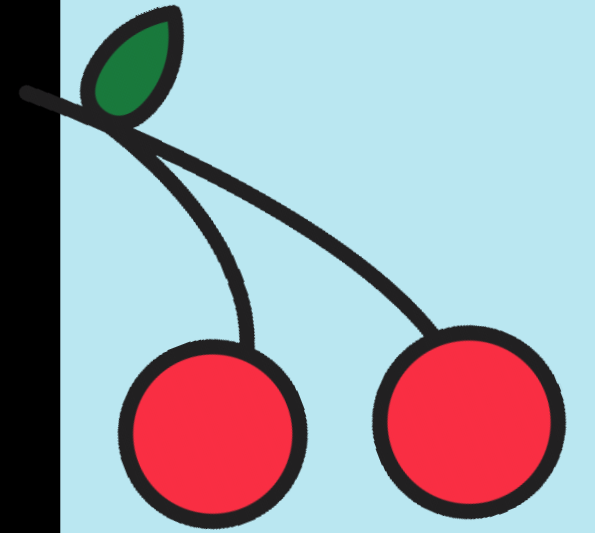

Individually investigate and critically analyse the following question in relation to the food and hospitality industry:

What career and training opportunities are available for young people within the Food and Hospitality industry in Australia?

WHAT AM I
GETTING ASSESSED ON?

INVESTIGATION 1

Productive, well-planned, and well organised investigation of contemporary issues related to the food and hospitality industry or to food and hospitality in family and community settings

- Clear
- Well organised
- Good flow of content and paragraphs
- Information makes sense

Focused and discerning identification and use of a variety of primary and/or secondary sources, with appropriate acknowledgement

- Use both primary AND secondary sources
- Choice of information is appropriate
- Appropriate referencing

INVESTIGATION

3

Highly effective application of literacy and numeracy skills, including clear and consistent use of appropriate terminology

- Use consistent formal language - NO chill, laid back, casual language
- If using data or statistics, correct use of numbers
- Good sentence flow

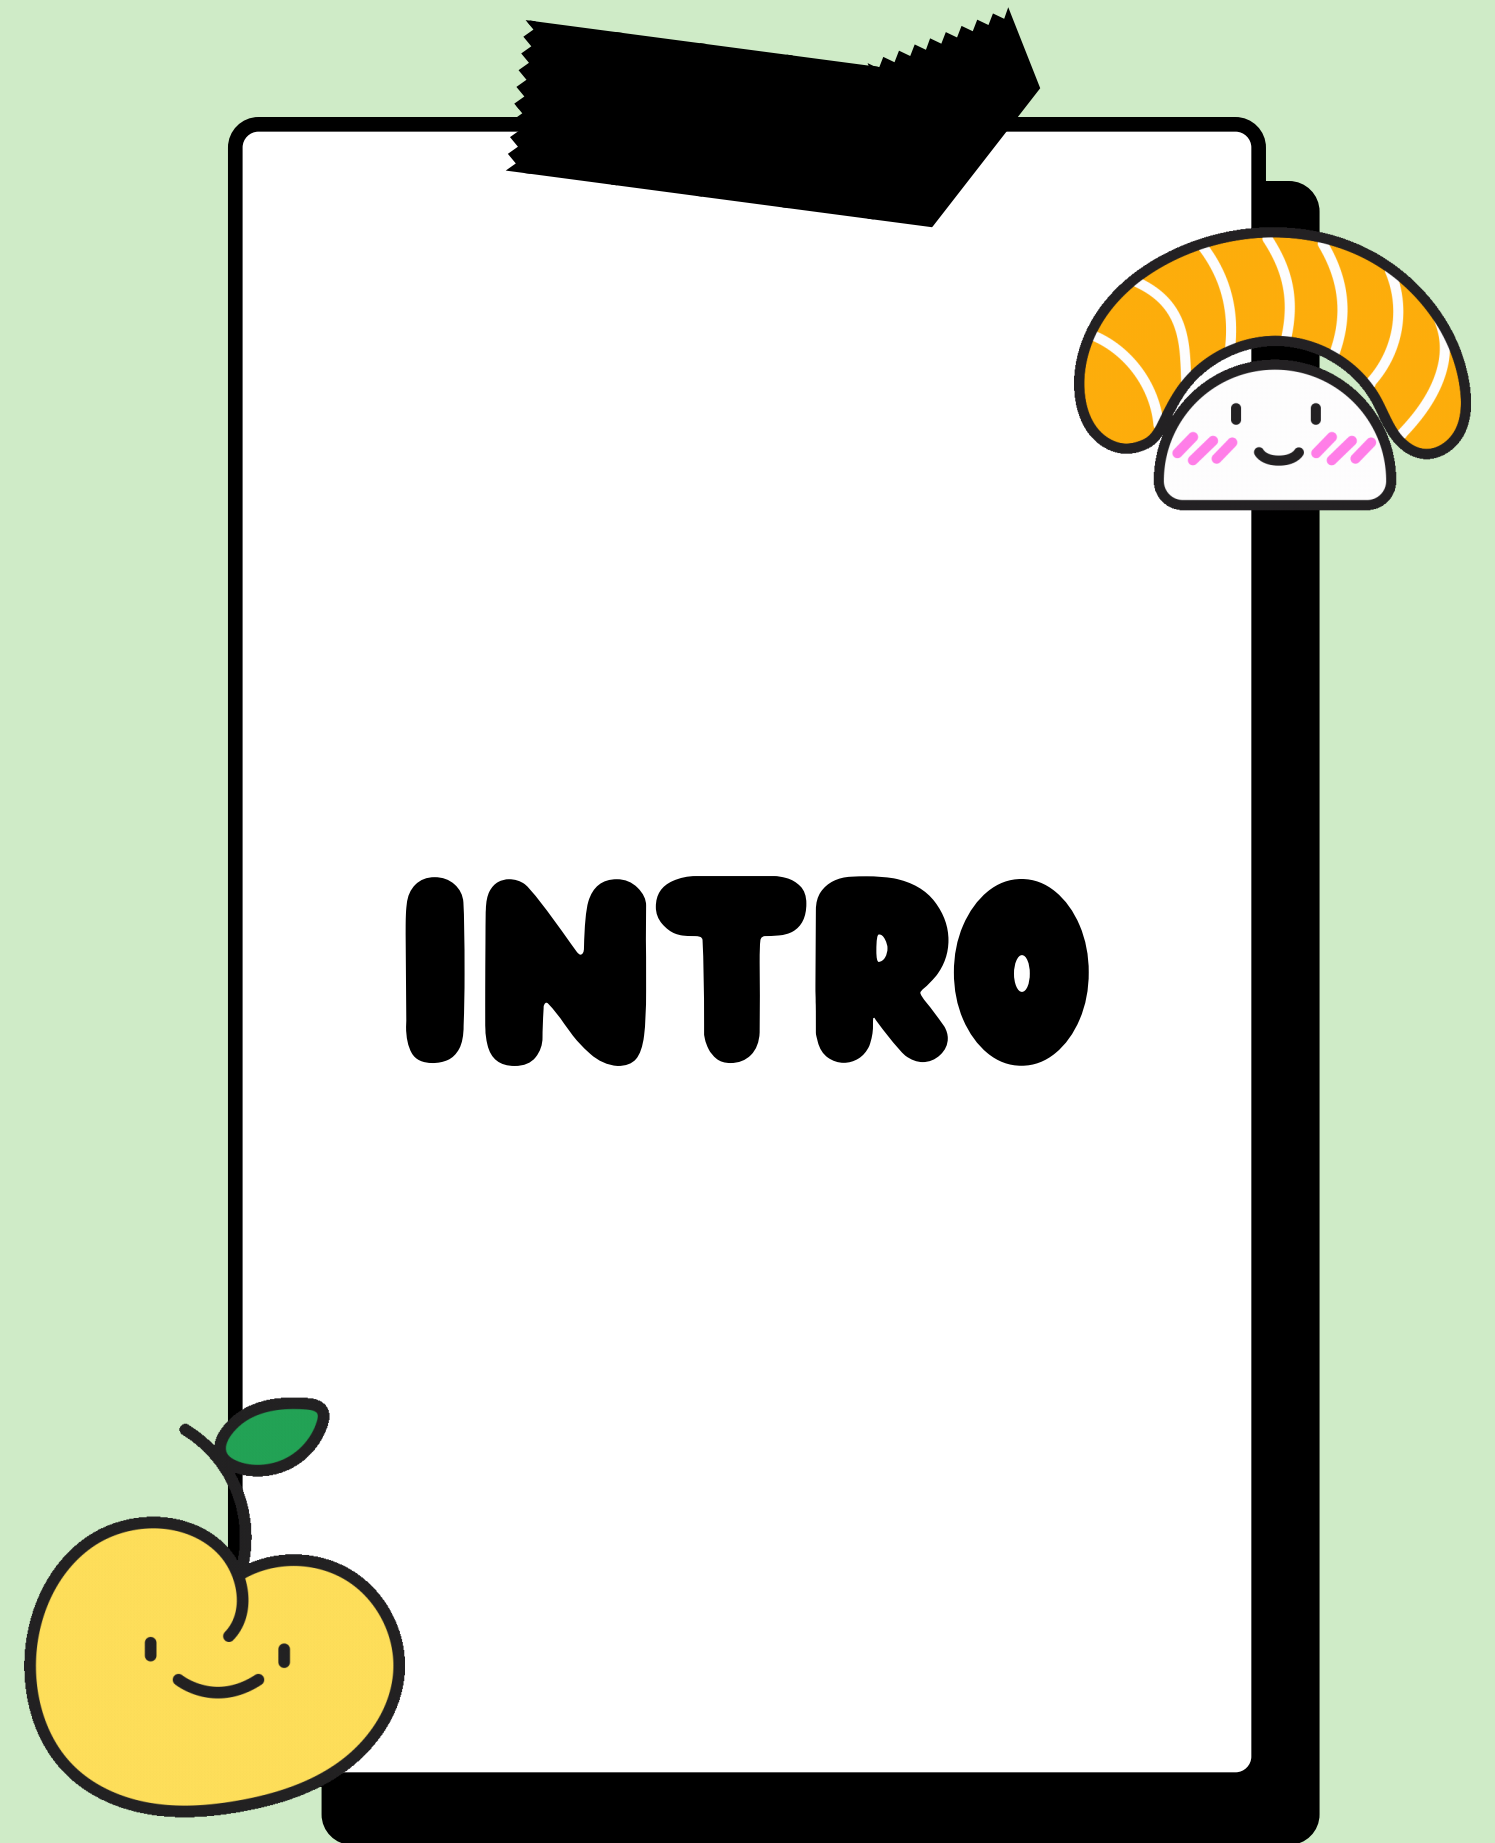

REFLECTION 3

Insightful reflection on contemporary issues related to food and hospitality

- Refer to contemporary issues
- Make relevant conclusions/answers
- Discuss what the information you found means
- Make conclusions about what this means for young people wanting to enter the industry

Introduction and scope (approx. 50–100 words)

- Introduce the research topic, set the scene for the reader
- Indicate the key points you will be discussing using research
(not in list form - use full sentences
- make it flow together)

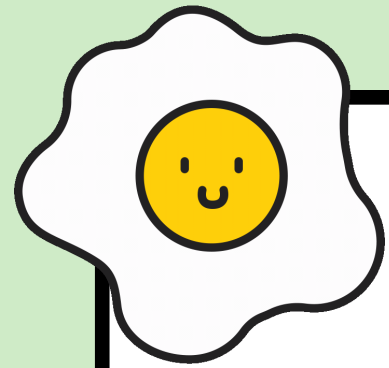

BODY

(approx. 400 words)

Analyse the information you have collected to assist you to explain, what career and training opportunities are available for young people within the Food and Hospitality industry in Australia?:

- Opportunities are provided Australia wide and Internationally
- Pathways available for young people
- Outcomes for young people working in the industry (Make connections to what is available and the outcomes for people wanting to undertake training in the Food and hospitality industry)
- Reflect on how young people would be attracted to the hospitality industry
- How will the skills developed help them in the short and long term?

CONCLUSION

approx 100 words

- Draw reasonable and relevant conclusions – from the evidence gathered and discussed.
- Refer to the initial question and give a conclusion
- Make conclusions about what this means for young people wanting to enter the industry

THANK YOU FOR LISTENING!

Do you have any questions for me?